Jamie Holt
Acting Special Agent in Charge
Homeland Security Investigations

Jamie Holt is currently the Acting Special Agent in Charge (SAC) for the St. Paul office of Homeland Security Investigations (HSI), the principal investigative component of the Department of Homeland Security. HIS investigates, disrupts, and dismantles transnational criminal organizations and terrorist networks that threaten or seek to exploit the customs and immigration laws of the United States. As the Acting SAC of HSI St. Paul, Ms. Holt oversees law enforcement operations in Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota.

Ms. Holt's permanent position is that of Deputy SAC of HSI St. Paul. Prior to this position, Ms. Holt served as the Assistant Special Agent in Charge for the HSI Philadelphia office, where she oversaw a diverse group of investigative teams including national security and child exploitation, as well as multiple outlying offices throughout the state of Pennsylvania.

Ms. Holt has held several key leadership positions within HSI, and led the development and transformation of the national cyber crime program at the HSI Cyber Crimes Center in Washington, D.C. Prior to that, Ms. Holt served as the Acting Chief of Staff for the Assistant Director of Intelligence, and as the Acting Chief Intelligence Officer for the HSI Los Angeles field office. Ms. Holt started her HSI career in the Los Angeles field office where she held a variety of positions before promoting to a supervisor.

In 2000, Ms. Holt started her federal law enforcement career as a Border Patrol Agent assigned to Nogales, Arizona. Before joining the federal workforce, Ms. Holt worked as a Los Angeles County Probation Officer and a Spanish instructor.

Ms. Holt holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminal Justice and Spanish from Central Michigan University and a Master of Science degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Wisconsin, Platteville.