

BARBARA MULLEN-ROTH

Ms. Mullen-Roth is a career federal employee having served the United States Government for over 30 years. She is a member of the Senior Executive Service and has been a member of the U.S. Office of Government Ethics' executive leadership team since 2008. Ms. Mullen-Roth is currently the Deputy Director for Financial Disclosure at OGE but has served in a variety of leadership positions during her 20 plus-year career with OGE including the Chief Human Capital Officer, Chief Acquisition Officer, Personnel Security Officer, Facilities Management Officer and Continuity of Operations Program Officer.

Prior to her entry into the Senior Executive Service, Ms. Mullen-Roth served as OGE's Intergovernmental Programs Officer, responsible for managing the Agency's international technical assistance and cooperation program. At the request of foreign policy agencies and entities of the U.S. Government, Ms. Mullen-Roth conducted a multitude of presentations and participated in international conferences discussing OGE's role as a corruption prevention organization, sharing the United States' best practices and experiences with foreign governments directly and through multilateral processes.

Ms. Mullen-Roth also served as OGE's Associate Director for Education and Program Services. Ms. Mullen-Roth was responsible for directing the ethics education and training program in the executive branch and managing OGE's ethics liaison services to each executive branch agencies. Ms. Mullen-Roth has also held positions as Assistant to the Director of OGE and as a senior Desk Officer.

Before joining OGE in 1990, Ms. Mullen-Roth was a senior evaluator with United States Government Accountability Office (GAO) serving in various locations including Washington, DC, Honolulu, Hawaii and Chicago, Illinois.

Ms. Mullen-Roth is a graduate of Kent State University in Ohio and holds a certificate from the Senior Managers in Government program at the Harvard Kennedy School.