

COLONEL ELIZABETH B. BORELLI

Elizabeth Borelli has had a distinguished career leading diverse military organizations for over 29 years. In her current role, she is the Senior Military Advisor to the Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP) in the Executive Office of the President. She serves as the senior Department of Defense (DOD) military representative and principal advisor on counternarcotics, global threats and drug demand reduction programs. She provides advice, information, and recommendations to ONDCP and DOD officials on counternarcotics and global threats support used to implement the President's National Drug Control Strategy.

Colonel Borelli was commissioned as a distinguished graduate of Officer Training School. During her career, she has lived and traveled all over the world and has commanded an Operations Group providing ceremonial, musical, and funeral support to the Air Force and 2 space launch weather squadrons supporting manned and un-manned space flights. She was the Deputy Commander of a largest Mission Support Group in Air Force Material Command leading personnel, services, supply, travel, transportation, fuels, and force protection. Her operational experience includes flying as a crewmember on the Airborne Nuclear Command Post "Looking Glass" providing chemical, biological, radiological, and nuclear consequence management to the National Command Authorities. She also worked interagency policy with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's National Weather Service; deployed as an Air Expeditionary Group Deputy Commander at an air base in southern Iraq; and has held numerous joint and staff positions.

In her free time, Colonel Borelli serves as the Membership Chair of Executive Women in Government (EWG). She has a passion for mentoring and helped establish the new Mentoring Program for EWG and serves as the Program Coordinator. During her military career, she served as a Company Grade Officer Council sponsor and mentor at numerous assignments; working with junior officers in all aspects of on and off-duty service. She has been a long-time supporter of Girls Scouts and worked for over 10 years as a Girl Scout leader and camping coordinator; culminating her volunteer service as a Service Unit Leader and Delegate of her Association.

Colonel Borelli received her B.S. in Chemical Science from Florida State University, a M.S. in Meteorology from the Naval Postgraduate School, and a M.S. in Strategic Studies from the Air War College.